An Act to amend the Welfare Act 1989.

The Parliament of the Cook Islands enacts as follows—

- 1 Title
This Act is the Welfare Amendment Bill 2019.
- 2 Commencement
This Act comes into force, or is deemed to have come into force, as the case requires, on 1 July 2019.
- 3 Application
For all purposes, this Act applies on and after 1 July 2019 and despite section 2 (which relates to commencement) any question of law must be decided accordingly.
- 4 Principal Act amended
This Act amends the Welfare Act 1989 (the principal Act).
- 5 Section 4 amended (Child benefit)
In section 4(1), replace “fourteen years” with “16 years”.
- 6 Section 7 amended (Period for which child benefit payable)
In section 7(1) and (4), replace “fourteen years” with “16 years”.

7 Section 19 amended (Interpretation)

- (1) In section 19(1), definition of capitalised value, replace “10 years” with “16 years”.
- (2) In section 19(1), definition of child benefit, replace “10 years” with “16 years”.

8 Section 27 amended (Amount of advances)

In section 27(2), replace “14 years” with “16 years”.

9 Validations

For all purposes, the references in the definitions of capitalised value and child benefit in section 19(1) to “10 years” must be read as if—

- (a) during the period commencing on 1 January 2006 and ending with the expiry of 30 September 2018, they were references to “12 years”; and
- (b) in the period beginning on 1 October 2018 and expiring on the commencement of this Act, they were references to “14 years”.

This Act is administered by the Ministry of Internal Affairs.
