

IN THE HIGH COURT OF FIJI
AT LAUTOKA
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION

Judicial Review Application HAR 11 /2017

GUSTON FREDRICK KEAN

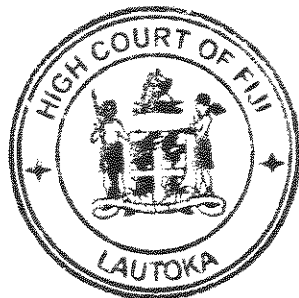

v

STATE

Date of Ruling: 28 June 2017

RULING

- [1] By way of written application for leave, accompanied by affidavit, the Applicant applies for Judicial Review of his deprivation of privileges at the maximum security Corrections Centre in Naboro.
- [2] He deposes to having been denied normal promotion of "stage" privileges despite his good behavior and absent wrongdoing.
- [3] Judicial review is a legal process to adjudicate deeds or decisions of public officials who act in the public interest and not for the private administrative decisions of officers in a correctional institute who are acting not in the public interest but in the interests of security and safety in their institutions.
- [4] Judicial review is a totally inappropriate vehicle for resolution of the perceived grievances of this vexatious applicant.
- [5] Leave to review is refused.
