With respect to Defendant Clan Ati this matter came before the Court on Wednesday March 30, 2005 on Republic's motion to revoke the suspension of sentence pursuant to section 189 of the Criminal Code.

August 26, 2003 Defendant had plead guilty to Rape and Kidnapping.

Defendant had previously been sentenced as follows:

1. 10 years in Majuro Jail.
2. Serve 6 years.
3. Execution of 4 years of the sentence was suspended pursuant to 31 MIRC §189, during which time the Defendant shall be on probation. The probation shall extend 2 years.
4. During the period of probation the Defendant shall obey all laws of the Republic, refrain from consuming alcohol and remain in Majuro.
5. Defendant under go a drug rehabilitation program during his time in custody if it is available.
6. Defendant may be released on probation August 26, 2009.
7. Defendant shall remain on probation until July 6, 2011.

As the Defendant has today pled guilty to escape and been sentenced to 3 months in jail in Criminal Case 2005-007, the Court is required to re-visit the suspended sentence.

The Republic submits that the period of suspended sentence should be reduced to require the Defendant to serve and additional year in jail. There was no submission from counsel for the Defense.

Therefore the sentence is amended as follows:

1. Defendant is required to serve an additional 3 years and three months in Majuro Jail making his release date November 11, 2011.

Dated March 30, 2005
