FOREIGN INVESTMENT BUSINESS LICENSE ACT 1990

AN ACT to encourage and regulate foreign investment in the Republic so as to promote the economic development of the Republic by transferring the powers and functions of the foreign Investment Advisory Board to the Cabinet.

Commencement:	October 3, 1990
Source:	P.L. 1990-99
Amended By:	P.L. 1993-37 P.L. 2000-5 P.L. 2005-30
	P.L. 2019-102 P.L. 2020-02

§201. Short title.

This Chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Foreign Investment Business License Act of 1990. [P.L. 1990-99, §1]

§202. Interpretation.

For the purposes of this Chapter, unless it is otherwise provided or the context requires a different meaning:

- (a) “Minister” means the Minister for Finance;
- (b) “non-citizen” means:
 - (i) any person who is not a citizen of the Republic; or
 - (ii) any corporation, joint venture, partnership, association, or other legal entity in which a person or persons who are not citizens of the Republic own an equity interest.

- (c) “Register” means the Registrar of Foreign Investment designated under section 203A of this Chapter .[P.L.1990-99,§2 Paragraphs and clauses were renumbered for consistency with the format and style of the Code][Modified by P.L. 2000-5, §2][amended by P.L.2005-30]

§203. License required.

Except as provided for in this Chapter and the regulations promulgated thereunder:

- (a) no non-citizen shall be permitted to do business in the Republic without first obtaining a foreign investment business license under this Chapter;
- (b) no non-citizen shall be permitted to acquire an interest in any business previously owned entirely by citizens of the Republic until the business obtains a foreign investment business license under this Chapter;
- (c) a license shall be in the form set out in the schedule 1 to this Chapter; and
- (d) the issuance of a license does not, in any way, provide implicitly or explicitly, any sort of guarantee by the Government with respect to the investment, nor does the license provide any privileges to the foreign investor other than allowing the license holder to be treated equally with resident investors, subject to the laws of the Republic. [P.L.1990-99, §3][Modified by P.L.2005-5 §2(2)]

§203A. Registrar of Foreign Investment.

The Secretary of Finance is hereby designated as the Registrar for Foreign Investment.[P.L.2000-5 §2(3), re-numbered as section “503A”][amended by P.L.2005-30]

§204. Duties and powers of the Registrar.

For the purposes of this Chapter, the Registrar shall have the following duties and powers:

- (1) to receive applications for and issue foreign investment business licenses under the provisions of this Chapter;
- (2) to ensure compliance with this Chapter, the regulations promulgated and licenses issued under this Chapter . In this connection, the Registrar may investigate any alleged or suspected violation of this Chapter, the regulations or the licenses and, in cooperation with the Office of the Attorney General, enforce the provisions of this Chapter, the regulations and the licenses. In hearings or investigations permitted or required under this Chapter or the regulations made thereunder, the Registrar may administer oaths and subpoena witnesses, records, books and documents; and

- (3) to provide advice to the Government on policy matters related to foreign investment either at the request of the Cabinet or as an initiative to the Minister. [P.L.1990-99, §4][modified by P.L.2000-5 §2(4)]

§204A. Reserved List.

- (1) A Reserved List consisting of economic sectors, sub-sectors or activities in which investment is reserved solely for citizen investors shall be maintained and publicly displayed by the Registrar.
- (2) The economic sectors, sub-sectors or activities included on the Reserved List shall be approved by the Cabinet on the advice of the sectoral Ministries. The Reserved List, as approved by the Cabinet, together with detailed reasons for inclusion of said sectors or activities, shall be published in the Government Gazette and once in any newspaper published in the Republic. [P.L.2000-5 §2(5), re-numbered as "504A"]

§205. Application.

- (1) Every non-citizen required to obtain a foreign investment business license under this Chapter shall submit an application to the Registrar.
- (2) The application for a foreign investment business license shall contain the following information:
 - (a) the name of the applicant's business;
 - (b) the applicant's principal place of business in the Republic and its authorized representative for purposes of the application;
 - (c) the purpose, scope, and objectives of the business activities to be conducted by the applicant;
 - (d) the proposed form of the business organization, including the ownership and management structure;

- (e) the names, addresses, and citizenship of the initial owners and managers;
- (f) proposals for ownership and management by the citizens of the Republic;
- (g) proposals to give employment preferences to citizens of the Republic and to train citizens of the Republic for positions in management and at other levels in conformity with the Labor (Non-Resident) Act;
- (h) anticipated capital contributions, revenue and expenditure for the first three (3) years of operation; and
- (i) any other information the Cabinet deems necessary or appropriate. [P.L.1990-99, §5, amended by P.L. 1993-37, §1. Modified by P.L.2000-5 §5(6).][amended by P.L.2019-102].

§206. Procedure for granting foreign investment business licenses.

- (1) The Registrar shall review all applications and require and collect any further information.
- (2) If it is unclear whether the application is for an investment in a sector included on the Reserved List or not, then the Registrar shall clarify the position by seeking the written opinion of the Secretaries of appropriate Ministries. If such opinion is conflicting, the Registrar shall obtain a ruling from the Cabinet.
- (3) When the investment sector has been determined, the Registrar shall:
 - (i) issue a foreign investment business license if the investment application is for a sector or activity not included on the Reserved List; or
 - (ii) advice the applicant that the application has been denied if the proposed foreign investment is in sector included on the Reserved List. [P.L.1990-99, §6.][modified by P.L.2000-5, §2(7)]

§207. Register.

- (1) The Registrar shall maintain a register of foreign investment in the Republic in the form set out in Schedule 3 to this Chapter, and such register shall be a public document.

- (2) Any foreign investment business license holder shall advise the Registrar of any change in circumstances that necessitates a change to the data contained in the Register of Foreign Investment within 39 days of the change. Failure to inform the Registrar of any changes within the prescribed time shall result in a fine or penalty under the Fees & Penalty Schedule. [P.L.1990-99, §7, modified by P.L.2000-5, §2(8)][amended by P.L.2019-102].

§207A. Requirement for keeping records.

- (1) Account records. Every non-citizen granted a foreign investment business license pursuant to this Chapter shall maintain reliable and complete accounting records, to include correct and complete books and records of account. Accounting records must be sufficient to correctly explain all transactions, enable the financial position of the non-citizen to be determined with reasonable accuracy at any time, and allow financial statements to be prepared. Additionally, every non-citizen granted a foreign investment business license pursuant to this section, such as, but not limited to, invoices and contracts, which shall reflect all sums of money received and expended and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place; all sales, and other transactions; and the assets and liabilities of the non-citizen.
