The Commission has determined, pursuant to Section 224(2) of the Constitution and Sections 174(b)(i) and 20(3) of the Organic Law on the Ombudsman Commission, that the following procedure shall apply in relation to this investigation:

1. The preliminary report shall be regarded as a private and confidential document and shall not be for general publication.

2. The Commission directs, pursuant to Section 21(1) of the Organic Law on the Ombudsman Commission, that all evidence, documents, papers and things referred to in the preliminary report, including all findings and opinions, shall not be published without consent in writing of the Commission. Breach of this direction is a criminal offence, punishable on conviction in the National Court by a fine of K1,000.00 or imprisonment for 12 months, or both.

3. Only those persons and companies who are directly affected by the report or are the subject of adverse comment or have some other special interest in the subject of the investigation shall be entitled to receive a copy of the preliminary report.

4. All persons and companies who consider that they may fall into the class of persons referred to in (3) above, who have not received a copy of the preliminary report by 1st October, 1997, are invited to contact the Commission. The Commission will then determine whether the person or company concerned shall receive a copy of the report.

5. All persons and companies referred to in (3) above are entitled to make submissions to the Commission on its preliminary findings and opinions.

6. The closing date for lodgment of submissions shall be 24th October, 1997.

7. The Commission will prepare the final report of its investigation after considering submissions received by the above closing date.

8. The final report will be published and forwarded to the Speaker of the National Parliament for presentation to Parliament in accordance with Section 23(1) of the Organic Law on the Ombudsman Commission.

S. G. PENTANU,
Chief Ombudsman.

J. N. WAUGLA,
Ombudsman.

N. TETANG,
