1 Short title

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Consular Conventions Act.
- (2) In this Act unless the context otherwise requires:

“consular officer” means any person who is granted an exequatur or provisional or other authorisation by the Governor-General;

“consular employee” means any person employed at a Consulate for the performance of executive, administrative, clerical, technical or professional duties or as a consular guard, messenger or driver of a vehicle whose name has been communicated by a consular officer to the Governor-General but shall not include any person employed on domestic duties.

2 Powers of consular officers in relation to property in Solomon Islands of deceased persons

- (1) Where any person who is a national of any foreign state to which this section applies is named as executor in the will of a deceased person disposing of property in Solomon Islands or is otherwise a person to whom a grant of representation to the estate in Solomon Islands of a deceased person may be made, then if the Court is satisfied, on the application of a consular officer of the said foreign state, that the said national is not resident in Solomon Islands and if no application for a grant of such representation is made by a person duly authorised by power of attorney to act for him in that behalf, the Court shall make to that officer any such grant of representation to the estate of the deceased as would be made to him if he were so authorised as aforesaid.
- (2) Where any person who is a national of any foreign state to which this section applies:
  - (a) is entitled to any money or other property in Solomon Islands forming part of the estate of a deceased person or to receive payment in Solomon Islands of any money becoming due on the death of a deceased person; or then if the said national is not resident in Solomon Islands a consular officer of that state shall have the like right and power to receive and give a valid discharge for any such money or property as if he were duly authorised by power of attorney to act for him in that behalf:

Provided that no person shall be authorised or required by this subsection to pay or deliver any money or property to a consular officer if it is within his knowledge that any other person in Solomon Islands has been expressly authorised to receive that money or property on behalf of the said national.

- (3) No surety shall be required to an administration bond given by a consular officer upon the grant of administration by virtue of this section.

3        Supplementary provision as to section 2

Notwithstanding any rule of law conferring immunity or privilege in respect of the official acts and documents of consular officers a consular officer shall not be entitled to any immunity or privilege in respect of any act done by virtue of powers conferred upon him by or under section 2 or in respect of any document for the time being in his possession relating thereto.
