Practice Direction No.1 of 1993

Service of Documents

From 1st February 1993 when any document is served pursuant to 0 11 rr 2 and 3 of the Supreme Court Rules or 06 rr 1-4 of the Divorce Rules, a certificate of service in the form below must be completed by the person effecting service (whether law practitioner, service officer or any other person) and filed in the Supreme Court Office at Nuku'alofa within 3 days of service where service was effected at Tongatapu, and within 14 days of service where service was effected elsewhere within the Kingdom. The filing of such a certificate will be deemed to be endorsement of the original document under 0 11r3 and 06r4.

When service is by the Court on a practising lawyer by placing it in the correspondence rack, an endorsement on the file cover in the following form and signed by the clerk will be evidence of due service.

| "Placed in letter rack number | at | am/pm on (date) | |
|-------------------------------|----|-----------------|--|
|-------------------------------|----|-----------------|--|

Dated 27th January 1993.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

Case No.

and: I do hereby certify that at am/pm on the 19 at I did serve the documents listed day of below on

of

Whose identity I knew because

Signature: Date

40

30

Documents served:

10

20

(Gordon Ward) CHIEF JUSTICE H

Between: