Cello Vila - vs Krakor Cooperative.

claim for and amount of VT 8.575.

Defendant: Yes that is true. I a little remark I'll make.
writ of summons was unproperly. The cooperative never received and never said not to pay the amount. We were surprised that the small amount was taken to court.
Another thing the plaintiff Cello Vila sends goods to our shop without my approval.
But I never said anything against it.
Sometimes they take to the cooperative to an amount of VT 25000 without my approval. I want to know from the plaintiff, how many pounds have been given to the plaintiff or.
If they think we might steal from them I want to know. I still think they were wrong because we were never given a letter of reminder until the writ of summons was issued.

Plaintiff: That the defendant had taken order without the approval of the manager. They got the order of the goods through the shop kept only. This account had been outstanding since September 1954. We've given them a lot of reminders but they never came up to make the payment.

Defendant: ~~mifala tavesu~~ We never said not to pay for the account. I ask if I can make and ~~argument~~ allegation against the plaintiff for bringing this matter to court and ruining the name of the co-operative.

Order: That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of V/10.575 for the
