JUDGMENT

An application was filed by the claimant on the 31st of October 2014 seeking for the defendant to pay an amount of VT 45.000 in which VT 42.000 is for the kava he dug and send to the defendant who resides in Vila and operating a Nakamal. After the kava has been sold the defendant never refunded the claimant the money he owed to him for the Kava stems. He also claims' VT 3.000 towards his expenses of travelling to Lakatoro trying to get assistance from police officers to help him send message to the defendant to refund him but the defendant still fails. From this the total claims is an amount of VT 45.000

The claimants father Mr Edward Rapi made an application before the court seeking for a dismissal of the case due to the matter had been sorted out of court during the month of August 2015 between the two parties.
