

IN THE MAGISTRATE'S COURT
ROVO BAY, EPI

Civil Case No. 1 of 1997

(Civil jurisdiction)

BETWEEN: MR BEN DAVID TARBO

Plaintiff

AND: MR JOHN MAWA TAKORUA

Defendant

COURT ORDER

Having heard Ben David (the Applicant) that he wish to make a land claim for Ringdove, herein referred to as "Ringdove land", to the Efate Island Court.

And having heard further from the Applicant that he wish to restrain both parties (i.e. Applicant and Respondent) from causing further disturbances against each other ;

The Court Orders that :

- (1). Both parties, their nominees agents, be until final determination of customary dispute be restrained from :
 - (a) Assaulting, threatening or harassing each other,
 - (b) Damaging or destroying any property belonging to either party, their agents or nominees.
- (2). That if the order is breached (broken) the party, agents or nominees concerned will be arrested by the police and brought before the court to be dealt with for the breach as a contempt of court.
- (3). That the Police Commissioner be advised of this order and a copy be served on him or his agent.
- (4). That either party has liberty to apply for redness of this order.
- (5). The costs be reserved.

Dated this 1 day of September 1997

JERRY BOE
Magistrate

