

The Joint Court of the New Hebrides.

This eighth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

In the matter of a charge against the native Tom Mara.
The above named Tom Mara stands convicted ~~xxxxx~~ of having stolen a magnifying glass belonging to Thomas Swallow a British subject at Epi on or about the 18th. day of July 1913.

THEREUPON the Joint Court sentences the said Tom Mara for his said offence to be imprisoned for a term of FOURTEEN DAYS commencing from the 1st. day of ~~August~~ ^{August} and to pay the costs of these proceedings.

Magnifying glass to be returned to Mr Swallow.

Samuel A. L.
President.

J. Waring
French Judge

Benjamin J. ...
Registrar.

J. ...
British Judge.

August
1913.
~~1913.~~