PART 5 FOOD INSPECTION AND ANALYSIS

24. Powers of entry and search - (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (7), a food safety officer may do any of the following for the purposes of this Act:

(a) stop, detain or search a vehicle, vessel or aircraft the officer knows or reasonably suspects—

(i) is being used for the production, processing, cooking, handling, storage, display, sale or distribution of any food or associated thing; and

(ii) has been, is being, or is likely to be used by a person in connection with a contravention of a requirement of this Act;

(b) enter any place, at any time, the officer knows or reasonably suspects is being used for the production, processing, handling, storage, display or sale of any food or associated thing.

(2) In the place entered under subsection (1), the officer may do any of the following:

(a) search for, examine or take samples of any food or associated thing;

(b) open and inspect a room, place, container or package that the officer knows or reasonably suspects contains any food or associated thing;

(c) examine or make copies of a document (electronic or hard copy) that could contain relevant information about any food or associated thing;

- (d) obtain photographic evidence of any food or associated thing or condition;
- (e) question, with respect to matters under this Act, a person the officer finds in the place;
- (f) make an inquiry or examination as the officer believes to be necessary or desirable to assist the discharge or exercise of a function or power under this Act to ascertain whether a contravention of a provision of this Act has been, is being or is likely to be committed.

(3) Subsection (1) does not authorise forcible entry by the officer to any place except under the authority of a warrant obtained under subsection (4).

(4) If a Judge is satisfied, upon the information of a food safety officer, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that a place has been, is being or is likely to be used in connection with a contravention of a provision of this Act, the Judge may issue a warrant authorising the officer with or without a police officer to enter the place specified in the warrant for the purpose of exercising the powers and duties conferred on a food safety officer under this Act.

(5) For the purpose of gaining entry to any place, a food safety officer may require the assistance of another person as the officer considers necessary.

(6) A warrant issued under subsection (4) is, for a period of 1 month from the date of its issue, sufficient authority:

- (a) for the food safety officer and a person assisting the food safety officer, to enter the place specified in the warrant; and
- (b) for the food safety officer to exercise, in the place specified in the warrant, all the powers and duties conferred on a food safety officer by this Act.

(7) Before exercising a power under subsection (1), the food safety officer must produce his or her identification, if requested.

25. Closing orders - (1) The Director General may issue a closing order for a place if:

- (a) the Director General has reasons to believe that the public health is at immediate risk until corrective action identified as necessary in an inspection is taken; or
- (b) the owner or operator of the place fails within a reasonable period to implement a corrective action, identified as necessary by the Director General.

(2) The owner or operator of the place that is subject to a closing order may request the Director General for re-inspection of the place to determine compliance with the requirements of this Act and the re-inspection must be carried out within 72 hours of receiving the request for re-inspection.

(3) If a place is found, upon re-inspection under subsection (2), to be in compliance with the requirements of this Act, the Director General must immediately lift the closing order.

(4) If the operator of a food business:

(a) fails to stop its operations and close its place within 12 hours of the closing order; or

(b) fails to comply with the requirements of this Act, within 14 days of the closing order; or

(c) is found on more than 2 occasions within 12 months to be subject to a closing order, the Director General must request the Commissioner of Inland Revenue to cancel the business licence for the food business.

(5) When the request is received under subsection (4), the Commissioner of Inland Revenue must as soon as possible cancel the business licence and inform the Director General.

(6) A food business, the business licence of which is revoked pursuant to subsection (5), must not be issued with a new business licence within 3 months of the revocation of the business licence pursuant to subsection (5).

26. Assistance from the police - (1) The Director General or a food safety officer may ask a police officer, if necessary, for assistance in carrying out the functions, duties, or powers under this Act.

(2) In providing assistance under this section, a police officer has the powers of a food safety officer under this Act.

27. Sampling - If a food safety officer reasonably believes that there may be a contravention of this Act, the food safety officer may demand and obtain, with or without payment, samples of food or an associated thing as required for the purposes of this Act.

28. Appointment of analyst and certificate of analyst - (1) The Minister may appoint a suitably qualified person to be an analyst to analyse and examine any food or associated thing submitted for the purposes of this Act and to prepare a certificate of analysis relating to the results of the analysis and examination.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the certificate of analysis is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate and is admissible in any court or tribunal.

(3) A court or tribunal may require the analyst to appear in the proceedings for the purpose of examination on the certificate of analysis.

29. Copy of certificate - A food safety officer must provide a copy of the certificate of analysis to the person from whom the sample was obtained.

30. Right to request a second test - A food safety officer must provide an affected person with the opportunity to carry out or request, at the person's expense, a second test to re-confirm the results of an analysis undertaken under this Part.

31. Cost of analysis - A Judge may, in the case of a conviction, award the cost of analysis against the defendant as part of the costs of the prosecution.

32. Seizing food or associated things - (1) A food safety officer may seize any food or associated thing which contravenes this Act.

(2) A food safety officer who seizes any food or associated thing under subsection (1) must include a statement of the seizure in the written inspection report and provide the report to the owner or operator of the place as soon as possible.

(3) If a food safety officer has seized any food, associated thing, record or other property for the purposes of this Act, the officer may:

- (a) retain it for as long as it is necessary for the purpose; and
- (b) for any record, provide a certified copy of the record to the person entitled to it; and
- (c) for any food, associated thing or other property, dispose of it as the Judge directs.

(4) The owner or operator from whom any food, associated thing or property has been seized may apply to a Judge within 2 working days from the date of seizure for an order to revoke the seizure and to release the seized food or associated thing.

(5) An order issued by the Judge under subsection (4) may state that the released food or associated thing is safe.

33. Destruction and disposal of seized food or associated things - (1) A food safety officer must destroy and dispose of any food or associated thing seized under section 32 if:

- (a) the food safety officer has reason to believe that public health is at immediate risk unless the food or associated thing is destroyed and disposed of; or
- (b) the food or associated thing is in contravention of the requirements of this Act and the owner consents in writing to its destruction and disposal; or
- (c) the court has ordered the disposal under section 41.

(2) If any food or associated thing is destroyed and disposed of under subsection (1), the owner is liable for all reasonable costs for the destruction and disposal of food.

(3) In this section, “dispose” includes re-export.

PART 6 OFFENCES

34. Offences involving misleading conduct - (1) A person commits an offence if the person:

- (a) provides a document or information to a food safety officer that—
  - (i) is required to be provided to the officer under this Act; and
  - (ii) is false or misleading in a material detail; or
- (b) alters, conceals, or destroys a document or information; or
- (c) adulterates, misrepresents, or tampers with food or an associated thing so that it does not conform with –
  - (i) its label; or
  - (ii) its package; or
- (d) falsifies, suppresses, or tampers with any food sample or associated thing.

(2) In a prosecution for an offence against this section, it is not necessary to prove that the defendant intended to commit the offence.

(3) A person who is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10,000 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or both.

35. Offences involving obstruction of officers - A person who hinders or obstructs a food safety officer from carrying out his or her functions, duties or powers under this Act commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 5,000 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or both.

36. Offences involving publishing non-complying advertisements - (1) A person commits an offence if the person publishes or arranges an advertisement that:

- (a) does not comply with the requirements of this Act; or
- (b) is false or misleading in a material detail; or
- (c) is prohibited by a requirement of this Act.

(2) A person who is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10,000 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or both.

37. Offences involving donation of unsafe food - A person who donates or gives free-of-charge food which is unsafe or unsuitable or which does not comply with the requirements of this Act commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 5,000 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or both.

38. Offences by body corporate - If a body corporate commits an offence against this Act, a director or any other person concerned in the management of the body corporate also commits the same offence unless the director or other person proves that he or she exercised reasonable diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

PART 7
EVIDENTIAL PRESUMPTIONS AND COURT ORDERS

40. Order to pay expenses - (1) A court may order a person convicted of an offence against this Act to pay any or all of the expenses incurred in taking, holding, or testing food or an associated thing for the purposes of the prosecution.

(2) The amount ordered under subsection (1) is to be paid together with any fine imposed or to be recoverable as a debt.

41. Order to forfeit and dispose of food or associated thing - (1) Before making an order under this section, the court must give the following an opportunity to be heard:

- (a) a person convicted of an offence against this Act;
- (b) any other person the court considers has an interest in the food or associated thing for which the offence was committed.

(2) The court may order that:

- (a) the following be forfeited to the Government—
  - (i) any food or associated thing for which the offence was committed that is in the person's possession or control;
  - (ii) any food or associated thing for which the offence was committed that was in the person's possession or control before being seized under this Act and is still in the custody of the court or the prosecution; and
- (b) the food or associated thing must be disposed of in the manner approved by the Director General.

(3) The court may order a person to pay all or any of the expenses incurred in disposing of any food or associated thing under subsection (2)(b).

(4) The amount that the court orders to be paid under this section is to be paid together with any fine imposed or to be recoverable as a debt.

(5) The court may order relief from the forfeiture of any food or associated thing, if the court is satisfied that the relief is in the interests of justice.

(6) In this section, “disposed of” includes re-exported.

42. Order to cease use of label, etc - The court may order a person who does the following to cease the use of any advertisement, label, or package of the same kind until the problem that resulted in the conviction has been remedied:

- (a) imports, produces, processes and handles, or sells any food or associated thing;
- (b) is convicted of an offence against this Act in relation to any advertisement, label, or package.

43. Order to restrict or prohibit dealing with food- (1) This section applies when:

(a) a person—

- (i) is convicted of an offence against this Act; and
- (ii) has been convicted of an offence under any other Act in relation to matters covered under this Act; or

(b) a person is convicted of an offence against this Act and the court considers that the person’s dealings with food should be restricted or prohibited because—

- (i) the offence for which the person has been convicted is serious; or
- (ii) the person has breached a previous order under this section.

(2) The court may make:

- (a) a restriction order to specify the ways in which the person is restricted in the person’s dealings with food; or
- (b) a prohibition order to prohibit the person from dealing with food.

(3) A person subject to an order under subsection (2) may apply to the court which may do the following:

- (a) cancel or change the order;
- (b) change a prohibition order to a restriction order;

(c) refuse the application, in which case the court may specify the earliest date upon which the person may re-apply for cancellation of the order.

(4) In making a decision under subsection (3), the court must take into account the following:

- (a) the nature of the offence for which the person was convicted;
- (b) any step taken to remedy the problem that resulted in the order;
- (c) the person's conduct since the order was made;
- (d) the person's character;
- (e) any other circumstances of the case.

(5) If the court changes the order or refuses the application, the person may re-apply for cancellation of the order:

- (a) when the date specified under subsection (3)(c) has expired;
or
- (b) if there has been a material change in the person's circumstances.

PART 8 MISCELLANEOUS

44. Protection from personal liability - (1) This section applies to the following:

- (a) the Minister;
- (b) the Director General;
- (c) the Commissioner of Inland Revenue, in relation to business licences for food businesses;
- (d) a food safety officer;
- (e) any other officer or employee of the Government or any person required to assist in the carrying out of any function, duty or power under this Act.

(2) A person to whom this section applies is not personally liable for carrying or failing to carry out in good faith and without reasonable cause a function, duty, power or requirement under this Act.

45. Delegation - (1) The Director General may delegate all or any of the Director General's functions, duties and powers under this Act to a food safety officer or another officer or employee of the Ministry except the power of delegation under this section.

(2) The delegation does not prevent the Director General from carrying out the functions, duties, and powers delegated under subsection (1).

46. Regulations - (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Head of State, acting on the advice of Cabinet, may make regulations to give effect to or for the purposes of this Act, and in particular to make regulations for the following purposes:

- (a) to specify the criteria that the composition of food, and the sampling and testing of food to determine its composition, must meet to ensure that food is safe and suitable;
- (b) to specify the criteria that the following must meet to ensure that food is safe and suitable—
  - (i) the sampling and testing of food or an associated thing to determine its safety or suitability;
  - (ii) the production, processing, cooking, handling, labeling, importation or sale of food;
  - (iii) the information about or the identification, promotion or advertisement of food;
  - (iv) the substance in or the chemical status or genetic modification of food;
  - (v) the elimination of hazards from food;
  - (vi) any other matter that affects the safety or suitability of food;
- (c) to require an approved item or an approved person or an approved class of persons to be used;
- (d) to set out all or any of the following for imported food—
  - (i) different categories based on criteria, descriptions, food groups, import passages, origins, risks, or types;
  - (ii) different treatment for different categories, including their criteria to be complied with;
  - (iii) how and when the criteria must be met, how the criteria may be met and who is responsible for ensuring that the criteria are met;
  - (iv) other matters related to criteria;
  - (v) sampling and testing requirements that must be complied with;
  - (vi) record-keeping requirements that must be complied with;
- (e) to prescribe procedures, documentation and requirements relating to a certificate of health;
- (f) to set out requirements of the following for a person or a class of persons—
  - (i) the information that the person or class of persons must collect about food or an associated thing;

- (ii) the periods for which the person or class of persons must keep the information;
  - (iii) how, when, and to whom the person or class of persons must report on the information;
  - (g) to set out requirements on the details of and keeping and maintaining of public registers under this Act;
  - (h) to prescribe fines not exceeding 10,000 penalty units for the breach of a regulation;
  - (i) to prescribe standards for the fortification of food including standards which prescribe the following—
    - (i) the composition, production, manufacture, preparation, storage, labeling, promotion or advertisement of food;
    - (ii) the sampling and testing of food to determine its composition or safety;
  - (j) to regulate food business or food premises;
  - (k) to regulate the use of salt, sugars or fats in food.
- (2) Before advising the Head of State to make regulations, the Cabinet must take into account the following:
- (a) the need to protect public health;
  - (b) the desirability of avoiding unnecessary restrictions on trade;
  - (c) the desirability of maintaining consistency between the regulations and any relevant standards, requirements, or recommended practices that apply or are accepted internationally including standards, guidelines and related texts published by the Codex Alimentarius Commission;
  - (d) the need to give effect to Samoa's obligations under a relevant international agreement, convention, protocol, or treaty;
  - (e) any other matter that the Cabinet considers relevant.

47. Fees and forms - The Minister may:

- (a) by Notice in the Savali, determine fees, charges, levies, and other cost recovery mechanisms for the purposes of this Act; and
- (b) approve forms for the purpose of this Act.

48. Reference to standard works - (1) A reference in a regulation or notice made under this Act to the current edition of a specified standard work of reference is to be read as a reference to the latest edition of the work available at the time of reading, together with any changes made to it up to that time.

(2) A reference in a document to a specific edition of a specified standard work of reference means the specific edition that is to be used.

(3) A standard work of reference is a work of reference that the Director General considers is accepted internationally or by industry as a standard work of reference to be consulted on its subject matter.

49. Transitional - (1) Within the 12 months after the commencement date of this Act, a person may sell food if:

(a) there is no reason, other than the fact that this Act applies to it, as to why the person must not sell the food; and

(b) the person proves that—

(i) at the commencement of this Act, the food was part of the existing stock-in-trade in Samoa of a person carrying on business in Samoa; or

(ii) the food was purchased before the commencement of this Act for importation into Samoa; and

(c) since the commencement of this Act, no person has done an act that causes the food not to comply with this Act or regulations.

(2) Subsection (1) does not allow a person to sell any food that is unsafe.

(3) The Head of State may, acting on the advice of Cabinet, make regulations, within 2 years from the commencement of this Act, to deal with any transitional or saving matters relating to this Act.
